Golf, Gastronomy and Sliding A beautiful escape in Sint-Maarten

Let this Sint-Maarten getaway transport you to a world where refinement meets escape, and where every detail is thought out for your pleasure and wonder.

Imagine a day where every moment is a promise of wonder, beginning with a helicopter flight over the turquoise waters of the Caribbean, transforming the landscape into a living canvas that stretches as far as the eye can see. Your palate is then caressed by the exotic flavors of a gourmet breakfast, featuring local dishes selected for their freshness, awakening your senses to the richness of the region.

Then let yourself be tempted by an introduction to golf or a Green Fee. On the green, your swing is not just a game, but a communion with nature, each shot resonating with the breath of the wind and the scent of the sea.

Lunch is transformed into a unique sensory experience at Kalatua restaurant, where culinary delights mingle with the sea breeze, and every bite is a journey. Your afternoon is an aquatic adventure, where you choose between the adrenalin of the seabob and the grace of the efoil, two ways of dancing with the waves. And as the sun declines, you're whisked away to St. Barths where the discreet luxury of your private villa envelops you in an embrace of tranquility.

Duration: full day
Package: 750€/person by plane - 1400€/person by helicopter
Includes: transfer by plane/helicopter, cab to destination, breakfast, green fee, lunch and afternoon at Kalatua Mullet Bay Beach Club.
Kalatua Beach: Welcome cocktail, lunch (excluding drinks), sun lounger, 40-minute seabob or efoil session.
